

Did you Know
By Pat J. Kirwin.

THAT William Parks, 83, father of Albert Parks, S. Scioto-st grocer, voted for Abraham Lincoln, the Republican candidate for president of the U. S. in 1864 and also voted for Herbert Hoover at last Tuesday's election. Mr. Parks cast his ballot for Lincoln at the age of 15. He enlisted in Co. G, 28rd regiment of the Ohio Infantry in 1864, giving his age as 21, and at the election of that year voted along with the other soldiers of his regiment. He has never missed a presidential election since 1864 nor has he deserted the Republican candidates.

That 40 years ago William Collins, colored, a convict at Ohio penitentiary sentenced from Pickaway-co, killed himself by butting his head against the wall of his cell. He was serving a life sentence for the murder of his wife. In his suicidal act Collins fractured his skull, causing death.

That the first "fair" to be held in Circleville was sponsored by The Pickaway Agricultural Society on Sept. 28, 1852—over 80 years ago. The first annual event was held about a half mile north of the city at the Columbus and Roy-alton-pks. Dr. Marcus Brown, T. Huston, and P. K. Hull were in charge of arrangements. Over $1,500 in premiums were awarded to prize winners. The premium list The Herald of that date says, "included awards to be given for the best vegetable garden; best 10 acres of corn averaging not less than 103 bushels per acre; best draft horses, cattle, sheep, swine; best made farm implements; best made hay, flour and products of dairy and best fruit, vegetables and poultry." Also according to The Herald of that date, the outstanding display was a pumpkin entered by Bert Julian of Tarlton. It weighed 128 pounds. The Circleville and Tarlton bands provided music for the first fair.

THAT the great Chillicothe fire which originated from an explosion in a cabinet shop and swept over the city taking everything in its path with a loss of property estimated to have been $700,000 occurred in April, 1852. Nearly every building in the city and over seven-eighths of the merchandise were destroyed. A public subscription taken in Circleville to be sent as relief to the "city of ashes" netted $173.

That Circleville made a strong bid in 1890 for the location here of the Epileptic Asylum which was awarded to Gallipolis. The residents of the city met at the court house 42 years ago this week and appointed a committee composed of A. R. Van Cleef, J. A. Hawks, J. P. Smith, H. R. Heffner, W. J. Weaver, J. C. Harper, B. H. Rootwick, F. M. Schulze, A. J. Grigsby, O. E. Niles, C. E. Groce, Edward Smith and T. E. Cromley to present the name of Circleville to the commission appointed to select the site. Five sites were offered free of charge to the state committee by the local commission. They included the Miller farm on the Scioto river; John Stevenson farm, Columbus-pk; S. H. Ruggles farm; the new fair grounds and the George W. Gregg land. Concerning the selection, the following is quoted from the Democrat and Watchman of that date:

"The commission to select the site for the proposed epileptic asylum decided in favor of Gallipolis as the location. Twelve ballots were taken. Col. Vance voting every time for his own city, Gallipolis; Mr. Brunelle voted every time for Sidney, the city where he resides. 'Of all my mamma's children, I love myself the best.' Mr. Waite voted for several places but never for Circleville as was predicted. Finally he changed to Vance and that settled it."

Scouts Lauded In Talk

Tom O. Gilliland Urges Support as Excellent Rally is Held Here

Tom O. Gilliland, Pickaway-co scout commissioner, speaking for R. L. Brehmer, Boy Scout district chairman, who was unable to be present at the enthusiastic district scout rally held at Memorial Hall Friday evening, lauded the scout movement as one of the greatest aids to a community such as Circleville.

A fairly large crowd attended the gathering at which various demonstrations of scout signaling, artificial respiration and drowning rescues were illustrated and explained. In commending the scouts, Mr. Gilliland said that he did not think Circleville could sponsor another Pumpkin Show without the Boy Scouts. "Their fine work at the Pumpkin Show and at the recent Halloween carnival in assisting the police, and only today aiding the Red Cross begin its roll call, are noble achievements and are certainly deserving of all the commendation that can be given them."

URGES ENCOURAGEMENT Speaking further, Mr. Gilliland urged parents at the gathering to encourage the scout movement among their friends as it was expected and hoped that two more troops would be organized in Pickaway-co soon.

It was also announced, that a banquet for scout parents and friends would be held in Circleville, Wednesday, Dec. 7, the place not yet selected. At this meeting merit badges will be awarded to scouts who are eligible for them.

William Weldon, John Robinson and Jack Brown of Circleville Troop 107 put on an excellent demonstration of artificial respiration and rescue work. These same boys together with Horace Gilmore, David Steinhauer, C. Ward and Charles Mowery also took part in illustrating signaling. Charles Kirkpatrick explained the movements.

Hoover Again Promises Aid To Roosevelt

"Restoration of Prosperity Is Near," President Says In Leaving Palo Alto.

ENROUTE WITH PRESIDENT HOOVER, Glendale, Cal., Nov. 12.—President Hoover today renewed his promise of full cooperation to President-elect Roosevelt to bring the "restoration of prosperity."

Speaking from the rear platform of his train he called upon Republicans not to be discouraged by defeat but to join in nonpartisan action "to continue the recovery so evidently in progress during the past few months."

The president said he was rushing back to Washington after a three day rest at his home in Palo Alto to devote himself to the task of reconstruction.

His statement indicated the basis on which he will seek cooperation with Gov. Roosevelt at the White House conference shortly to discuss national politics and program. The conference is planned for early December after congressional recesses.

WOMAN 'ON SPOT' SPRINGFIELD, Mass. 12.—Lead from a gangster's machine gun today killed Mrs. Paquin C. Miranda and wounded her companion Michael Fiore, as they were sitting in a parked automobile. She was the first woman ever "put on the spot" in Massachusetts.

Eleven years ago, Mrs. Miranda's first husband Carlo Sim-schaich, an alleged bootlegger, was "bumped off."

Chamber of Commerce Robbed Today "Clearing House"

TO BE ON NOV. 22nd

Organizations Invited to Attend Meet

Plans to prevent overlapping and duplication in relief, provided by several charitable organizations in Pickaway-co, will be discussed at one of the most important Chamber of Commerce meetings of recent months on Tuesday, Nov. 22, Mack Parrett Jr., announced Saturday.

It has been suggested that an endeavor be made to provide for a Social Service, Clearing House. "To help in the organization of such an office, the Chamber of Commerce is inviting representatives from the several organizations with the county commissioners and township trustees," Mr. Parrett said, "to meet November 22 in order that the matter might be discussed and provisions made for the establishment of such an office."

ALL SHOULD ATTEND It is imperative to the plan that at least one person from each different organization be present at the meeting, Mr. Parrett pointed out.

This discussion will constitute the program of the meeting which will be held at Hanley's tea room at 6:15 p. m. The business session will immediately follow the supper.

The task undertaken by the Chamber of Commerce is an important one, beyond any question of doubt. With a number of organizations working for the good of worthy needy it is entirely possible that duplication is prevalent. Efforts have been made to prevent overlapping but it sometimes occurs. It appears that the only certain way to prevent such difficulty is in the form of a central clearing house. The Chamber of Commerce step appears to be in the correct direction.

SOLONS FACE BIG DEFICIT

New Methods of Taxation To Be Studied In 'Lame Duck' Congress.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—A lame-duck Congress already bedeviled by scores of controversies, great and small, is going to have to find new sources of federal taxation.

The condition of the treasury, almost $800,000,000 in the red so far this fiscal year, makes it imperative that there be some tax legislation of positive character in the short session, in the opinion of treasury officials and Congressional leaders.

The Hodge-Podge tax increase bill which was rushed through Congress last spring after the sales tax had been beaten has failed signally to bring in the money expected of it, or to live up to treasury estimates of its productive-ness.

The basis of that tax bill was a sharp increase in income taxes, and the institution of numerous so-called "nuisance taxes." In some categories, the schedules have produced only a minor fraction of the estimates.

The one that has come nearest to fulfilling expectations was the federal gasoline tax, and that expires automatically next June. As for the others, they have produced only 5 to 30 per cent of what was anticipated.

In this situation, advocates of a general manufacturers' sales tax of 2 per cent are preparing to press anew for its adoption.

40 ARE DROWNED IN ITALIAN FLOOD

ROME, Nov. 12.—Forty persons, including a number of children, have lost their lives in a terrific rainstorm in the province of Calabria, according to reports received here today.

Bridges were destroyed, trees uprooted and the shores of numerous villages flooded when torrential rains caused waters to overflow their banks.

Ten houses collapsed at Gioia, killing nine persons. Twenty other homes were badly damaged. At Mammola seven were killed, while Gerace reported a death toll of sixteen. A number of houses collapsed at Grotterij, burying their occupants.

Turner Tries Coast To Coast Flight Today

Roscoe Turner. Crash Pilot Leaves California Early Today; Trip 5,000 Miles.

BULLETIN KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 12.—Cutting a streak across the country in an effort to establish a new transcontinental round trip flight record, Col. Roscoe Turner landed his plane here at 10:46 a. m. for refueling.

He took off at 10:50 a. m. heading for Columbus O., his next refueling point. The elapsed time from Burbank, Cal., to Kansas City was six hours and 12 minutes.

BULLETIN ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Nov. 12.—Colonel Roscoe Turner on the eastbound—of his coast to coast flight—landed at the Albuquerque airport at 6:32 a. m. today refueled and was on his way toward Kansas City at 6:39 a. m. Colonel Turner with slight headwinds between Los Angeles and Albuquerque. Favorable weather was promised for his flight from here eastward.

UNITED AIRPORT BUREAU, Cal., Nov. 12.—In an attempt to fly to New York and return in one day, Col. Roscoe Turner, one of the nation's crack pilots, hopped off here at 2:34 a. m. He hoped to make the 5,000 mile round trip today in less than 22 hours.

Planning to refuel at Albuquerque, N. M., Kansas, Mo., and Columbus, O., Turner said his schedule called for arrival at Floyd Bennett Airport, New York, at 12:16 p. m., P. S. T. and a return landing here at 11:51 o'clock to-night.

His plane has a top speed of 285 miles an hour. The last attempted coast to coast and return flight on a single day was made by Lieut. Commander Frank Hawks in June 1929. He made the round trip in 36 hours and 49 minutes.

LABOR CLAIMS SENATE RULE

Organized Workmen Assert They Were Victorious In Backing Candidates.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Organized labor today claimed sensational victories in the election of Tuesday.

Twenty-three of the 26 successful senate candidates were endorsed by the railroad brotherhoods, the newspaper "Labor," organ of the railroad unions, pointed out.

A majority of the successful candidates for the House carry the endorsement of organized labor, it added.

The three losses in Senate contests recorded were Sens. Odell (R) of Utah, Brookhart (R) of Iowa and Cherry (D) of South Dakota.

"There is good reason to believe that the next House will be more progressive than any of its predecessors since the first years of the Wilson administration," said the labor organ.

The election means defeat for the administration's effort to have the appointment of Judge John H. Wickerson of Chicago to the circuit bench confirmed by the senate.

BANK BANDIT CAUGHT ATTEMPTING KIDNAP

Milan, Sandusky-co, Scene of Arrest After Bank is Calls Meeting to Discuss

LOOT RECOVERED

Tried to Abduct E. G. Ruggles, Cashier

BULLETIN SANDUSKY, O., Nov. 12.—Found to be suffering from a fractured skull a 30-year-old man who police said staged a robbery of the Farmer's and Citizen's Bank at Milan, near here this morning was removed to Providence hospital in a serious condition today.

The man who refused to tell his name or reveal the identity of two alleged companions who escaped after the holdup was seriously beaten about the head when he was captured by an official of the bank and two citizens on a Milan street shortly after the robbery.

MILAN, Nov. 12.—A lone robber heldup and robbed the farmer's and Citizen's bank of $1,500 before it opened for business today, and was captured a short time later while attempting to kidnap the bank cashier.

Shop-keepers of the street where the bank is located aided E. G. Ruggles, 60, the cashier, to subdue the bandit, as he was about to force the aged bank official to enter an automobile with two accomplices.

SEVERELY BEATEN The robber was severely beaten by his captors during the struggle. His two companions, sitting in a small coupe parked nearby, sped out of the city after witnessing the capture.

An unusual method of staging a bank robbery was used in effecting the holdup. Ruggles, arriving at the bank shortly before 8 a. m., was about to open the front door of the building.

With a gun poked into his side and ordered not to cry out, Ruggles was marched inside the bank and forced to turn over all of the cash available in the safe.

Apparently seeking to prevent a chase by kidnapping the cashier, the bandit then directed Ruggles to walk with him to the robber car that had been parked two blocks away from the bank.

As they neared the front of a poolroom on the main street of the village, Ruggles turned suddenly and grappled with the bandit. The owner of the poolroom and the operator of a butcher shop joined in the fight and overpowered the man. He was later taken to the county jail at Sandusky.

The loot was recovered.

ROOSEVELT BETTER

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 12.—President-elect Franklin D. Roosevelt who took to his bed yesterday at the executive mansion suffering from a severe cold today was reported as "much improved."

Mr. Roosevelt's temperature was back to normal today but it was announced he would remain in bed today and probably all of tomorrow. He cancelled his plans for spending the week-end at his Hyde Park home.

The president-elect will remain in seclusion at the mansion until Tuesday. He has denied himself to all callers.

STUDENT MISSING

COLUMBUS, Nov. 12.—Police today were drawn into a search for Bruce Ferguson, 27, of Dayton, sophomore in the law college at Ohio State university.

Democrats Hold Boards Control

Penn Gridders Perfer Blonde

COLUMBUS, Nov. 12.—The University of Pennsylvania football team has chosen a blonde who never drinks or smokes as queen of Ohio State university's homecoming celebration today.

She is Miss Annabel Dunlap of Columbus, a junior. She was chosen by the Penn football team after campus leaders at Ohio State complained that a fair election of a homecoming queen could not be held at Ohio State due to campus politics. She will lead a parade.

Garbo "Fools" London Crowd

LONDON, Nov. 12.—With a black wig covering her blonde hair and her eyes shielded by smoked glasses, Greta Garbo spent six days in London, from November 5 to 10, without being recognized by anyone, it was learned today.

The glamorous Swedish film star, making her first trip since her retirement to her native Stockholm many weeks ago, came to London just to take in the sights.

TRY TO SLASH OHIO CABINET

Highway, Agriculture, Health, Welfare Offices May Lose Power.

COLUMBUS, Nov. 12.—Strong efforts will be made at the next session of the state legislature to shear four members of the state cabinet of most of their power, according to information reported here.

The movement is said to be designed to place the highway, agriculture, welfare and health departments under complete control of non-partisan or bi-partisan commissions.

This plan, if it were to become effective, would upset the re-organization plan of government worked out under Governor Harry L. Davis in 1921 when directors were given full responsibility. Members of the commissions would serve without pay.

UNDER COMMISSION The directors of those four departments instead of being responsible to nobody but the governor, would be placed at the beck and call of the commissions, and in fact, would be employed and discharged at will by the commissions.

At present the directors are appointed by the governor and serve, usually, as long as the governor serves.

The complaint is being raised, however, that the departments are made footballs of politics under the present arrangements, and that each new administration completely re-organizes the entire personnel, dislodging persons who "have just been in the department long enough to learn the business."

Most of the protest, comes from the rural sections of the state, according to C. A. Dyer, one of the backers of the movement for commission control of the cabinet.

Dyer is said to have aligned (Continued on Page Six)

TEMPERATURE FALLS TO 25; MAY GO LOWER

Cold Wave General in State Weather Observers Disclose Today

SNOW FALLS HERE

Storm Warnings Posted on Lake Erie

Winter held all Ohio in its grasp, Saturday.

Snow and freezing temperatures were reported through the central and northern sections of the state. Mercury dropped as low as 25 degrees here Friday night, Dr. H. R. Clarke, weather observer, reported.

At noon, Saturday, the temperature was at 32 degrees. Cold weather will continue for several days, observers predicted.

Buildings were capped with white from the first genuine snow of the season this morning and a thin coverlet of snow lay on the ground and streets.

MARS HOMECOMING At Columbus, the arrival of winter interfered somewhat with annual homecoming celebrations held in connection with the Ohio State-Pennsylvania football game this afternoon.

Lake Erie at Toledo and Cleveland was choppy and storm warnings for small craft were displayed on most of the Great Lakes.

Temperatures in the low 20's prevailed at Cleveland.

Falling in step with winter's entry, automobilists started protecting their radiators. Gasoline stations reported heavy sales of alcohol.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—Coast guard cutters today searched for the derelict barge Fall River, out of Philadelphia, reported sighted nearly submerged off Atlantic City, N. J.

It was only one of several wrecks sighted by ships plying in the course of the recent storm along the eastern seaboard which caused more than $1,000,000 damage on land and sea.

GENUINE MISSING Another broken-up craft was seen by a vessel's crew 20 miles south of Sandy Hook lights.

The motorship Quincy, a fishing boat, was still missing with a crew of 24. No word of the ship was received since it entered the storm area.

"Buying Votes?" How Terrible

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Evidence of vote buying in the election in Delaware has been gathered by investigators for the House campaign funds committee, Chairman Hartsill Ragon (D) of Arkansas, said here today.

A crisp, five-dollar bill tucked away in a plain envelope and enclosed in a blank piece of paper, is in the hands of the committee. It was, according to Ragon, given to a voter in Wilmington.

Ragon has called a meeting of the committee for Nov. 15 in Washington, at which charges of fraud both in Delaware and Philadelphia will be considered.

Voters were "bought" in Delaware, according to Ragon. Many negroes, he said, were paid but $1 for their vote and complained bitterly of the "depression price."

Under the system worked out, investigators reported, a ballot would be marked for the voter outside the polling place. He would be given another ballot by the election clerk, would substitute the marked ballot and bring the second one to the man who paid him for his vote.

FIGURES GIVEN IN OHIO'S ELECTION

COLUMBUS, Nov. 12.—Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt carried Ohio in Tuesday's election by 72,717 votes and Gov. George White's margin was 298,097, according to complete unofficial returns announced today by Secretary of State Clarence J. Brown.

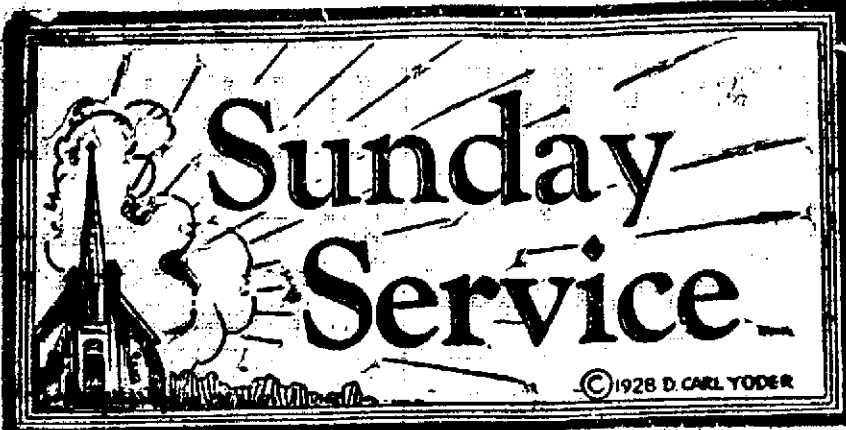

Senator Robert J. Bulkley's advantage in his re-election was 164,132 the figures showed.

State Auditor Joseph T. Tracy was re-elected with a majority of 48,885, and State Treasurer Harry A. Day with a majority of 46,821. Gov. W. Bricker in winning the governorship received a majority of 7,198.

FEVER FATAL The two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Bricker, of Circleville, died of a fever Saturday at the home of his parents in Circleville. The child was born in Springfield, Ohio, and was brought to Circleville by his parents.

The election held was the expression of the sovereign will of a free people. We all accept the result. There is only one thing to do—to cooperate to achieve results. There was much emphasis placed upon material things, unemployment, a return of prosperity. They are great issues. They will need much thought and study. No great problems are settled offhand. There is one greater problem. It is for the people as a whole to return to God, to learn God's will for the individual and the national life. The church seeks to help us to know that will. Its ministers are not infallible. They are human. But as a whole they are unselfish and high-minded, with the welfare of individuals and the nation on their hearts. They serve through the church. Give them your help. Go to church tomorrow, and take a friend.

MAKING A LIVING

Deuteronomy 24:14, 15; Amos 5:6-15; Mark 6:34; Luke 12:13-21; Luke 19:1-26; II Thessalonians 3:6-13; I Timothy 6:6-16.

GOLDEN TEXT—I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service, Romans 12:1.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus' Idea of Being Rich.
JUNIOR TOPIC—The Right Way to Make Money.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Right Ways of Earning Money.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Christian Spirit in Business.

1. Treatment of Hired Servants (Deut. 24:14, 15).
2. Oppression forbidden (v. 14). The man who hires out is usually poor. The employer should not take advantage of his condition.

3. Foreigners to have the same treatment as fellow countrymen (v. 14). Those who fear God will accord the same treatment to foreigners as to their own countrymen.

4. Servants to be promptly paid (v. 15). The laborer was to be paid at the end of the day. The credit system in these times is greatly to be deplored.

5. Ill-Gotten Wealth (Amos 5:11-13).
1. By oppression of the poor (v. 11). The rich built magnificent houses of the proceeds extorted from the poor. They took the bread out of the mouths of the poor by high rents and taxes—a picture of the conditions of our own day. The prophet assured them that God would interpose saying that they built houses and planted vineyards, but they would not be privileged to live in them nor to drink of the wine thereof.

2. By affliction of the just (v. 12). This they did by taking bribes. Many are today living in luxury from the proceeds derived from bribes.

3. By turning aside the poor in the gates (v. 12, 13). Because the poor had no money to hire advocates, they were turned aside. It is difficult today for the poor to get justice in the courts.

4. Jesus the Carpenter (Mark 6:3).
While Joseph lived, doubtless Jesus assisted him in the carpenter trade. He is therefore known as the carpenter.

5. The Rich Fool (Luke 12:13-21).
Many today are seeking gold and forgetting God. Those who are concerned with getting riches while neglecting God are displaying utter folly. Observe.

1. His increase in goods (v. 16). His riches were rightly obtained for the ground brought forth plentifully. It is not sinful to be rich. The sin is sometimes in the use made of riches.

2. His perplexities (v. 17). His land was producing more than his barns would hold. He did not know what to do about it. Had he personally held right views of life and a sense of stewardship to God, he would have seen that his barns held enough for himself and a surplus for the poor.

3. His fatal choice (v. 18, 19). He chose to enlarge his barns and to give up his life to ease and luxury.

4. The awful indictment (v. 20, 21). God called him a fool. Riches furnish neither contentment in this life nor a guarantee of continuance of life. It is not only foolishness, but madness to forget God while heaping up riches.

5. Reward for Laborer (Luke 19:10-20).
When Christ ascended on high, he gave gifts to men (Eph. 4:7-12). At his return to the earth, he will summon his servants to give an account of their stewardship.

They shall beat their swords into plough-shares and their spears into pruning hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. Bible.

Five great enemies of peace inhabit with us—avarice, ambition, envy, anger and pride; if we should banish these, we should infallibly enjoy perpetual peace.—Petrarch.

Hard-Driving Hillsboro Team Victor, 20-6

Negro Star Ace Cowboy Team

Cold Weather Mars Contest in Which Dean White is Injured by Vicious Tackling; Hill Scores From Five Yard Line After White to Hegele Pass Connects

By REYNOLD GREENE

Circleville High school's Tigers were handed another reversal Friday afternoon at Hillsboro by a fast charging and hard blocking team known as the Cowboys by a score of 20 to 6.

In the first 38 seconds of the game Hillsboro's ace, Marshall, a tall, lanky, colored fullback, paved the way for a Cowboy victory with a 53 yard touchdown run around the Circleville left end on the first play of the game and immediately after Kain smashed off tackle to gain the extra point after touchdown.

The first quarter Circleville faced a stiff wind and the good kicking of Hildebrandt kept the game in the Tiger's territory for the major part of the half but the Circleville boys held doggedly and refused to allow another touchdown in the opening period.

Although Hillsboro used screen passes and other plays known to be under the rules in the popular sport the Circleville players showed their mettle and fought to stop the Cowboys thrusts into their line.

PASS CONNECTS

Circleville's only score came in the early part of the second stanza when White heaved a long aerial pass to Bill Hegele to pick up 25 yards and place the ball on the Hillsboro 5-yard stripe. On the next play Bill Gaines Hill circled his own right flank for the five yards to cross the goal for Circleville's points. Hill's placement struck the crossbar and the point was no good and Circleville trailed the Cowboy outfit by a score of 7 to 6.

At this stage of the game Ellison, flashy quarterback of the Highland-co team, entered the fray, but his assaults against the Tigers were plenty and he was turned back consistently.

The half ended and fires which had been built at the ends of the playing field furnished little warmth to the players who were nearly frozen.

The next half saw the Tigers carry the old pigskin deep into the Hillsboro territory only to lose it and be turned back. During this third quarter Circleville played heads-up football and matched play with the Highland-co griders and neither team showed to be in great advantage over the other.

In this half Gaines Hill, smashing Tiger fullback, was practically blinded and could not see where he was going after he had been struck in the eye by Marshall after he was tackled on a play, but always managed to carry the ball into the line for consistent gains.

DEAN WHITE HURT

Dean White, Circleville's stellar quarterback, had to be taken from the game in the last period of the fray after he had been met twice by Marshall and Kain who shouldered to shoulder smacked him as he tried to circle his left end. On each instance White took the count and eventually had to leave the game. This left but one running backfield man in the game and he was already partially blinded.

Marshall then scored for the Hillsboro men but Hildebrandt's kick failed and then when Hill had the ball snatched out of his hands on the Circleville five yard mark Kain scored again for the last of the Cowboys scoring. Hildebrandt's kick was good.

This being the last game of the season it is just to give credit to players who have striven hard all through the season and give them encouragement to build up another good Red and Black football eleven for next year.

White and Hill have easily been Circleville's outstanding men during the season. Hill for his fighting spirit warrants a pat on the shoulder from every fan for time and again he has been the objective of assaults from the opposing teams and still with an indomitable spirit came back for more and never quit. Hill in this season has never lost a minute's playing time.

White deserves credit for his aptness at directing the maneuvers of his team. He has proven himself an able field general and a constant threat to the opposition in the returning of punts.

Speakman, Cook, Hundley, Davis, and Steele have from time to time given valuable aid to the team in the backfield and each is deserving of mention.

Bill Hegele has performed very capably at end and has given the opposing secondary defenses much to worry about when he came into their territory to snag a flying pigskin out of the ozone and start for their goal line.

Wallace, Rooney, Miller, Jones, K. Hill, Robinson, Mader, and others have all contributed largely by their superb play on the line to the success of the Circleville High School's grid eleven of 1932.

Friday night Bill Hegele, John

Mader, Bud Miller, Paul Rooney, Paul Wallace, Charley Davis, and Dean White checked in their uniforms for the last time. The status of Gaines Hill is not certain. Graduation and age limit will keep them from ever again participating in a Circleville High School game.

ROCKEFELLER WEDS

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—A European honeymoon awaits Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, 3rd, who were married yesterday in the Riverside church by the Rev. Harry Emerson Fosdick. The wedding was learned today from close friends of the couple, who pointed out that "with bad times still here a year-long, globe-circling honeymoon like that enjoyed a few years ago by Nelson A. Rockefeller, the groom's younger brother, would not be appropriate."

John D. Rockefeller, 3rd, is the grandson of the oil magnate, who is now at his winter home in Florida. The newest Mrs. Rockefeller is the youngest of the four daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Elton Huntington Hooker of Park Avenue and Greenwich, Conn.

Circleville placed two men on the Central Buckeye league Coaches football team as announced Saturday. They were Dean White at quarterback and Gaines Hill at fullback.

Grandview grabbed off four positions, all in the line, Bexley won three and Delaware two. Marysville and Westerville were ignored as far as first string selections were concerned.

With White and Hill in the backfield are Toughie Heinlein of Delaware and Medary Stark of Bexley.

At ends are Tudor of Bexley and Reiser of Grandview. Tudor was almost a unanimous selection with Bill Hegele of the Tigers giving Reiser a battle for first team honors.

At tackles were Christian of Bexley and Hagaman of Delaware* at guards Read and Montgomery both of Grandview and at center is McCollister of Grandview, a near unanimous choice.

HEINLEIN IS CAPTAIN

Dean White is chosen as quarterback receiving two votes for first team quarterback, one for second team quarterback and two for second team fullback. Hill was given one vote for first string fullback, one for second team fullback and two for third team fullback while he also received one vote for first team half back.

Heinlein received five first team selections, being chosen three times for halfback and one each for quarterback and fullback. He is named captain of the team by virtue of receiving first team selections from all five of the coaches making selections.

It should be pointed out that Frank Ballenger, Westerville mentor, is considerably disgusted with football after the showing of his team in the league and did not choose an all-league team.

Tudor was named for first team end four times out of five selections the other vote being for third team. Reiser received two first team and three second team selections while Hegele received one first and three second team votes. Henceroth of Bexley is the other end.

TACKLES STRONG

Christian and Hagaman were clearly the best of the tackle corp the former receiving three first and one second ballot and the latter three votes for first team. The two Grandview guards, Read and Montgomery, were given two first and one second team vote and one first, second and one third team vote. McCollister received four first and one third team vote for the center position.

Bud Miller and Bill Robinson, Tiger tackles, received one vote for second team tackle and three votes for third team tackle according to the figures with Mauger of Grandview and Newberger of Bexley grabbing the second team berths.

Wallace received one second team vote for center although Rinehart of Delaware gets the call for second team with one first team vote and one third team vote. At censolidly Republican from 1928 until 1930 when John W. Hay of Harrison-two defeated John Walters for the office. Mr. Hay has been president of the board since his induction into office last January.

There is little advantage beyond party satisfaction in either a solid Republican or Democratic board of commissioners as this body has but few appointive powers and acts but as a board of approval in many actions and cases.

Five other county Democrats and one Republican, named by the electorate last Tuesday, will take office on the first Monday in January. Nathan C. Bohnert will succeed himself as representative to the General Assembly; Mrs. Mary G. Morris will enter upon another term as county recorder; Ferd Pickens will return to his duties as clerk of courts, and Sheriff Charles Radcliff and County Engineer J. H. Sweetman will succeed themselves in their respective offices. Ray W. Davis, the only Republican to survive the Democratic blow of last Tuesday, will succeed Emmitt L. Crist as prosecuting attorney.

Charles C. Young, probate judge-elect, will take office Feb. 9, succeeding Judge E. A. Brown. Earl L. Hoffman will begin his second term in September, 1933.

MILK DRIVERS IN CITIES ON STRIKE

Cincinnati, Hamilton, Northern Kentucky Towns Protest Wage Cut.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 12.—Stationing pickets at all milk plants in Cincinnati, Hamilton and northern Kentucky cities, milk drivers scheduled to go on a strike at 7 a. m. today in protest against a proposed 20 per cent wage reduction.

All attempts to avert the strike failed at a union meeting last night. A peaceful strike was promised.

BY BILL CORUM

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 12.—Behind the signboards of New Jersey stands the Princeton Tiger, slapping his tail and looking for trouble.

The signboards of New Jersey advertise chiefly, one does not see a sign which makes the Princeton Tiger very hungry, indeed. So stand back, ladies and gents, and give the Princeton Tiger room; they say he is going what dear old Yale will do. Just Palmer stadium before 50,000 persons this afternoon and what a pity that will be. Dear old Yale was such a good fellow when he had it.

Besides it may turn out to be another mistake on somebody's part. Dear old Yale may wind up eating the Princeton Tiger before the 50,000 and that will mix things up no end. You never can tell from one week to the next what dear old Yale will do. Just when you get to thinking he is a sap, up he is to come along and set you down.

LASSITER IS TREAT

Yale will also have potentially the most gifted back on the field in "Snake Hips" Lassiter. Once this high strung southerner starts wriggling he is likely to break up your ball game for you and then keep it broken up. Last year's Tiger team was lucky to gag him much less tackle him.

Next to Lassiter and purely from my own observation in the one game in which I have seen Princeton this fall, I'd rate Jack Bales the most dangerous carrier. He plays for Princeton and instead of the Elis shouting "Hold 'em Yale!" they might be smarter to make it for this occasion: "Hold Them Bales!" Jack looked to be a coming star in the Columbia game, and with Draught on the sidelines this is his chance to win a place on that long scroll of Yale-Princeton heroes.

They have played Yale and Princeton, and before the final whistle blows the Princeton players of such as Hinkley and Baker may be gathered there in the long shadows of the concrete horse-shoe to cheer some hero.

TAKE PRECAUTION TO PREVENT RIOT

GENEVA, Nov. 12.—The City of Disarmament town became a heavily armed military station of 2500 soldiers took up stations throughout the city to protect the populace from threats of riot in connection with a 24 hour strike called for today.

The strike was called in protest against the killing of twelve citizens by soldiers attempting to suppress an anti-war demonstration Wednesday. A second cause for precaution was the fact that several demonstrations were planned to be held during the public funeral of these twelve this afternoon.

SCOUTS LAUDED

The largest attendance at a night's meeting. The program was made by Mr. Gifford. The group 155 of the Church of the Brethren presented an excellent program illustrating the life of a scout law. The presentation was given in the form of a play and clearly illustrated the duties of a scout trustworthy, helpful, friendly, courteous, obedient, cheerful, tidy, clean and brave.

Kenneth Campbell, educational director of the Central Ohio Area Boy Scouts, was present and commented the local troops on the splendid meeting.

The Circleville high school band under the direction of C. F. Zaenglein provided excellent music for the occasion and the scout's, under the leadership of K. J. Herrmann,

Will Speak At Union Service

Miss Brown of Flying Squadron Foundation at U. E. Church Sunday.

This community is fortunate in its opportunity to hear Miss Norma C. Brown, vice-president of the Flying Squadron Foundation, at a union meeting in the First United Brethren church, Sunday at 7 p. m.

She is a young woman of extraordinary ability. One of the greatest men on the American platform is reported as having said of her that the cutting edge of her keen mind was one of the finest things he had ever seen. She is not emotional. She presents no proposition which is not sustained by adequate proof. She has a passion for facts.

Her career has been an amazing one. Though but a few years out of Eureka College, from which she was graduated in 1920, she has spoken twice in every capital city of the United States, has appeared before the platform committees at Republican and Democratic conventions, has addressed immense audiences in every state in the Union, and has an extended acquaintance which would be a joy to people twice her age.

Her coming to any city is something more than an ordinary event. Standing as she does, at the very top of the speakers of the country, crowds ordinarily turn out to hear her. Notwithstanding all this, she is modest in demeanor, friendly to the utmost degree, and always genuinely interested in the people she meets. She is unspooled by success, is undeterred by obstacles, and is thoroughly devoted to the great cause to which she has dedicated her life. She takes rank among the great leaders of the prohibition movement and is the youngest of the group.

20 SEEK WARMTH OF CITY BUILDING

Last night's wintry blast brought twenty wanderers into the city jail to seek protection and shelter.

It was an odd assortment of men, old men hobbling on canes and young men, strong and healthy all wanderers of the road, all victims of circumstances.

One old man in particular related how he had been wandering nearly all his life, here and there, and now at last when he was aging and getting feeble every day could not even gain admission to any of the infirmaries of county homes because he had no regular place of residence.

The young man had been out of employment and had no work for over two years he was a mechanic by trade and had once owned his own shop. Business became bad and he sold out and he had started out to wander around.

Even in the face of this depression these twenty knights of the highways look forward to the lifting of the veil of hardship and poverty. They smile, even while they talk to you, and are quite optimistic about the future and what it holds in store for them.

One cannot help but wonder at the emotions of these men as they pass by homes where they see through windows a cheery family gathered around fireplaces while the winter vents its fury against their shelters.

Surely they think of home and sometimes want to quit wandering.

TYPHOON KILLS SIX

The Chillicothe market Friday was steady throughout with several heads showing an improvement. Fat sows, mostly for home consumption, ran far above any market quotation received. The fat cow pens, with several quality animals among them, sold much higher than usual. For the second consecutive week, choice steers have sold better than $7.00 per hundred weight showing that packers are always ready to pay a premium price for this type of beef. It is hoped that these choice offerings through the Chillicothe auction will do much to encourage the breeding and raising of better quality stock. Due to the shortened winter days, the Chillicothe market has adapted the policy of selling stock hogs and sheep before other offerings, enabling the farmer to attend the market, and return home at an early hour.

I CAN'T GET OUT OF IT VERY WELL, HE'S ASKED ME SO OFTEN AND I'VE REFUSED.

Kenneth Campbell, educational director of the Central Ohio Area Boy Scouts, was present and commented the local troops on the splendid meeting.

The Circleville high school band under the direction of C. F. Zaenglein provided excellent music for the occasion and the scout's, under the leadership of K. J. Herrmann,

ARMISTICE DAY NATIONAL PEACE

Armistice Day is a day that shall never be forgotten in the minds of the American people. We can not express in words the deep sense of gratitude in our hearts for Armistice Day. One minute before 11 o'clock on the morning of Nov. 11, 1918, the long battle was still raging with the deafening roar of cannons, the countless rifle bullets, and the rushing of thousands of machine guns. But just one precious minute after that hour a stillness almost like death took place in this heart-aching scene, which was the result of the Armistice with Germany that had come into effect. Armistice Day is the anniversary of the cessation of hostilities in the World War and also of the signing of an Armistice between the Allies and Germany. Since this great day is the date on which fighting ceased in the War of Nations has been made a national holiday throughout the British Commonwealth of the nations, France and the United States.

OPERETTA TAKEN FROM FAIRY TALE

'Hansel and Gretel,' the operetta which is to be given in the near future by the seventh grade, was taken from the fairy tale of Hansel and Gretel. The first act opens on Hansel and Gretel in their poverty stricken home. They are left alone to make brooms while their parents are away. Hansel is making a broom while Gretel is sewing on stockings. They tire of their work and start to play. Their mother arrives and becomes angry because of their work. She starts to spank them and knocks over the only pot of porridge they have. She makes them go for strawberries as that is the only thing that they will have to eat. After they have gone their father comes home with a basket laden with food which he bought with the money that he made from his brooms. He asks for the children and upon hearing where they are he is frightened because of the presence of the cooky witch in the woods. Second act opens with Hansel and Gretel picking strawberries. They grow very tired and start to eat the berries they have picked. They grow very tired and start to woods and become frightened. After saying their prayers to the angels who come to look over them, they finally go to sleep. Next morning when they awaken they discover a small cottage which has walls of gingerbread, a roof of cookies, glazed sugared windows and a candy stairway. The children, who are very hungry, pick the cookies to eat. Suddenly out comes a horrible looking old woman. She tries to gain the confidence of the children by pretending to be their friend. However they do not believe her. She puts Hansel into a cage and begins to feed him to make him fat for her to eat. After she catches him she has a dance with the witch. Gretel coaxes the witch to show her what the oven looks like on the inside. In the meantime Hansel has escaped from the cage. When the witch stoops over he pushes her in. While dancing in their rejecting there is a sudden flood of lightning. It reveals the true figures of the cookies children. They have been bewitched by the witch and cannot move and they beg the children to release them. Hansel and Gretel get the witch's magic wand and releases them. Just then Hansel and Gretel's mother and father come in and finds the children. The act ends in the midst of great rejoicing.

By Louise Cummings. Armistice day! We've signed the pact. We've made peace and tat' sa fact. Now the boys may all come home, That is, the boys, that are left to come.

No one knows what they have borne, Those brave lads over there. No one knows the scars they've worn, But we know they've done their share.

In Flander's field midst poppies fair, Lie some of the boys now gone, None of them have shirked the fight, And the U. S. A. has won!

WHO IS IT?

This sophomore girl has blackish hair. George is lightheaded—What a pair! He's seen quite often with a big black eye. He still goes with her, now we wonder why?

She's a member of the Girl Reserves. Membership in Epsilon she still preserves. It's a habit with her no douge to wear.

Is it a habit or doesn't she care? LAST WEEK—PAUL "CURLY" WALLACE

ARMISTICE DAY NATIONAL PEACE

Armistice Day is a day that shall never be forgotten in the minds of the American people. We can not express in words the deep sense of gratitude in our hearts for Armistice Day. One minute before 11 o'clock on the morning of Nov. 11, 1918, the long battle was still raging with the deafening roar of cannons, the countless rifle bullets, and the rushing of thousands of machine guns. But just one precious minute after that hour a stillness almost like death took place in this heart-aching scene, which was the result of the Armistice with Germany that had come into effect. Armistice Day is the anniversary of the cessation of hostilities in the World War and also of the signing of an Armistice between the Allies and Germany. Since this great day is the date on which fighting ceased in the War of Nations has been made a national holiday throughout the British Commonwealth of the nations, France and the United States.

BEHIND the SCENE In HOLLYWOOD

HOLLYWOOD, Cal. — Filmland

gossips were busy yesterday over the walkout of two more stars from their picture assignments. Eltona Paramount that she won't go into "No Man of Her Own" and Charles Farrell has issued a similar defi to Fox about "Face in the Sky."

Lending added piquancy to the Hopkins situation is the fact that her picture was to have been with Clark Gable. Gossips are agast at the idea of a leading woman turning down a chance to play opposite M. G. M.'s leading heart menace.

Nevertheless, Miriam insists the part is not suitable for her and steps out in favor of Carole Lombard. Which caused more scurrying around because Carole was supposed to do "The Billion Dollar Scandal" for Charles Rogers. Finally, Paramount let Columbia have Nancy Carroll in return for allowing Constance Cummings to come over for the Rogers film. It was all very complicated.

In Charlie Farrell's case, the walkout occurred a couple of days ago, but it is just coming to light. Again it was the complaint of an unsuitable role. Spencer Tracy, however, thought the part just suited him, so everybody is happy.

Over on Dave Butler's set, they were discussing a recent Hollywood dinner party that had been a dismal failure. Someone asked: "What do you do when conversation lags like that?"

With one of those silly grins, El Brendel replied: "I keep right on talking."
